

Opening Prayers

Oh, Love that will not let us go

We gather to honour you.

Plough our hearts to dislodge the hard ground

Till the soil in readiness for the seed.

Grant us peace to accept what is, when it is not what we want.

And courage to do justice and speak truth.

And wisdom to discern your guidance.

Receive our praise and nurture our desire to serve you forever.

Amen.